SafeChain workplace safety and health management platform

Declarant	Randy Richard
Business	MedChain Enterprise
Legal form	Sole proprietorship (enterprise)
Registration number	MRI/BNR/718/2026
Registered	30 June 2026, Miri, Sarawak
Technology	SafeChain
Type	Software
Ownership declared	Own Technology

1. The technology

SafeChain is a workplace safety and health management platform supplied as a hosted subscription service. It covers incident reporting and investigation, corrective action tracking, permit to work, asset and equipment inspections, training and competency records, contractor and visitor control, audits, and consolidated safety reporting.

2. Declaration

I, Randy Richard, being the sole proprietor of MedChain Enterprise, declare that:

1. I am the sole author and developer of the SafeChain platform. The design, source code, data model, safety workflows, permission and tenant separation design, report generation and user interface were created by me.

2. MedChain Enterprise owns all intellectual property rights subsisting in the SafeChain platform, including copyright in its source code.

3. The business is not an agent, reseller, distributor or licensee of any third party in respect of this technology. No part of the platform is licensed in from another vendor.

4. No third party holds or claims any right, title or interest in the platform. There is no investor, employer, client, educational institution, joint venture partner or outsourced development house with a claim over it.

5. The platform was not developed under any contract of employment, research grant, scholarship or commissioning agreement that would vest rights in another party.

6. No patent, trade mark, industrial design or other registration has been filed in respect of the platform. Protection is asserted through copyright in the source code, which subsists automatically.

7. MedChain Enterprise is accordingly free to supply, license and deploy the platform commercially without the consent of any other party.

3. Third-party open-source components

SafeChain is built upon publicly available open-source components, used under their own licences in the ordinary way. These components are not owned by MedChain Enterprise and no ownership of them is claimed. None of the licences below restricts commercial supply of a product built with them, and none requires the disclosure of SafeChain's own source code.
